RUSSIA, THE EUROPEAN CHAMPION OF MOTO BALL

The Russian team won the 2010 European Championship of Moto Ball, which took place from 13th to 18th July in Belarus in Pinsk and in Luninets (Belarus).

On Sunday 18th July the final matches took place in Pinsk, at the presence of 50,000 spectators flocked with great enthusiasm to the stadium, despite the temperature of 36 °.

After two exciting matches Russia has imposed itself on Belarus 11-3, winning for the twelfth time the title of European Champion, while the third and fourth place match has been won by France that competed against Germany winning 6-2 and therefore obtaining the bronze medal.
